

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION 993

By Burks

A RESOLUTION to honor the memory of Corinne Armstrong Reimann of Rogersville.

WHEREAS, the members of this General Assembly were greatly saddened to learn of the passing of Corinne Armstrong Reimann; and

WHEREAS, Corinne Reimann was an exemplary public servant and consummate professional who worked assiduously to improve the quality of life for her fellow citizens in numerous capacities; and

WHEREAS, upon graduation from Rogersville High School, Mrs. Reimann attended Emory and Henry College before receiving her bachelor's degree in Elementary Education from the University of Tennessee at Knoxville and a master's degree from Western Michigan University; and

WHEREAS, she served with acumen and alacrity as an elementary school teacher for thirty-six exemplary years, thirty-five of those years at Galien Township School in Galien, Michigan; as a teacher, she earned the respect of her peers, superiors, and students alike for the exemplary quality of her work; and

WHEREAS, in 2002, Corrine Reimann moved back to Rogersville from Michigan, rendering sterling service to her community by serving on several civic organization boards and distinguishing herself as an active community leader through the Rogersville Heritage Association, the Rogersville Historic Preservation Commission, the Chip Hale Center, the Rogersville Main Street Commission, the Republican Women's Organization, and the Rogersville Kiwanis Club; and

WHEREAS, she was an active and devout member of the Rogersville First United Methodist Church, where she served on numerous committees; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Reimann was also deeply devoted to her family, and she always endeavored to remain true to family values of the highest order; and

WHEREAS, she enjoyed the loving companionship of her husband, Kenneth J. Reimann, who preceded her in death, and was the proud mother of Chad Armstrong Reimann; and

WHEREAS, Corinne Reimann will be sorely missed by her three brothers and their wives, E. Clayton and Ellen Armstrong, W. Clinton and Linda Armstrong, and Orville R. and Geraldine Armstrong; brother-in-law, Jerry Reimann and wife, Janet; sister-in-law, Lee Yeske and husband, Donald; several nieces and nephews and great-nieces and -nephews; and special friends of care, Shirley Looney, Brenda Richards, and Linda Johnson; and

WHEREAS, in addition to her husband, Mrs. Reimann was also preceded in death by her parents, Clayton P. and Virginia Backus Armstrong, grandparents, Winfield and Cora Armstrong, and two special aunts, Lois and Florence Armstrong; and

WHEREAS, Corinne Armstrong Reimann leaves behind an indelible legacy of integrity and probity in public life, compassion and loyalty in private life, and diligence and dedication in all her chosen endeavors; and

WHEREAS, it is fitting that this General Assembly should pause to remember the bountiful life of this exceptional public servant and human being; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE ONE HUNDRED FIFTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES CONCURRING, that we honor the memory of Corinne Armstrong Reimann, reflecting fondly upon her impeccable character and her stalwart commitment to living the examined life with courage and conviction.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that we express our sympathy and offer our condolences to the family of Mrs. Reimann.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy.
